INDEX

Apple, Joseph H., on athletics for girls, 123-25.

Armstrong, Henry E., on scientific method, 96-98.

Athletics, 100-31; integral part of curriculum, 116; dangers, 129; danger of overtraining, 104, 111-13, 128; faculty control, 113, 117-18, 127-28; for girls, 124-25, 130-31; moral effects, 102-3, 107, 122-23; resolutions on, 134; in secondary schools, 110, 117, 118; spectacular side, 73, 105-6, 113-14, 121-22; student and graduate control, 109-10. See also Field hockey; Football.

Auditing committee, 131; report, 132.

B. A. degree, regulations governing in University of Pennsylvania, 43-45.

B. S. degree, regulations governing in University of Pennsylvania, 43-45.

Bacon, Francis, quoted, 12.

Birdsall, William W., on length of college course, 79.

Bogert, Marston T., on athletics, 122-23.

Briggs, on election of presidents of freshman class, 103-4.

Butler, Nicholas Murray, address of welcome, 5-6.

College course, what should be the length, paper and discussion, 39-83.

College Entrance Examination Board, representatives from secondary schools, 134.

College entrance requirements, 71, 86-89; in English, 90-94.

Colleges, relation to preparatory schools, 83-85; standard may be raised by requiring better work, 89.

Committees, temporary, 131.

De Garmo, Charles, on electives, 28-34; on length of college course, 75-77; resolutions introduced by, 134.

Degrees, see B. A. degree; B. S. degree.

Delegates registered 1903, 139-43.

Education, complexity of school courses, 86.

Educational problems, some unsolved, 83-100.

Elective system in secondary schools, paper and discussion, 7-39.

Eliot, President, on high school courses, 8, 9; on electives, 22, 23; on four year course, 56.

English, more attention should be given to, 89-94; comparative study of proficiency of pupils, 93-94; study of, in German schools, 95.

Entrance requirements, see College entrance requirements.

Farrand, Wilson, on requirements of colleges, 87.

Field hockey, 124-25, 130-31.

Football, develops the memory, 102; develops physical courage, 102; moral effects, 102-3, 107; danger of overtraining, 104, 111-13; spectacular side, 105-6, 113-14.

French, teaching of, 94.

German gymnasium, not suited to American conditions, 29; course in German, 92; modern language work, 95.

Hadley, President, on length of college course, 75-76.
Hale, Edward Everett, jr, on length of college course, 77-79.
Hammett, Charles E., on athletics, 115-20.
Hanus, Professor, on object of secondary schools, 28.
Harris, John H., on election of studies, 38-39; on length of college course, 79-81.
Harris, William T., on specializing, 9.
Hervey, Mary B., on athletics for girls, 123.
High schools, tendency to diminish number of subjects in course, 8; length of course, 75-76.
Hoff, van't, quoted, 97.

Jenkins, Mary Sicard, on athletics for girls, 125-27.
Joslin, W. C., on electives in secondary schools, 22-28.

Kieffer, John B., report as treasurer, 131-32.
Kingsley, on scientific method, 98.

Landon, Thompson H., on athletics, 120-22.
Languages, see Modern languages.
Larkins, Charles D., on athletics, 128-30.
Lyon, Phoebus W., on election of studies, 34-36.
Lyttle, E. W., on supervision of athletics, 127-28.

Maxwell, William H., Elective System in Secondary Schools, 7-14.
Members, list of, 135-38.
Meylan, George L., on athletics, 111-15.
Modern languages, teaching of, 94; instruction in, in Germany, 95.

Nightingale, on electives, 22.
Nominating committee, 131; report, 133.

Officers of the association, 143-44.

Peabody, Endicott, on athletics, 100-9.
Penniman, Josiah, What Should be the Length of the College Course, 39-47.
Preparatory schools, relation to colleges, 83-85.
Prettyman, Virgil, on athletics, 127.
Publication of the association for 1903, 144-45.

Remsen, Ira, response to address of welcome, 6-7; Some Unsolved Educational Problems, 83-100.
Rhees, Rush, on length of college course, 47-53.
Russell, Dean, on work in German in the gymnasium, 92-93; on modern language work in German schools, 95.

Sachs, Julius, on length of college course, 74-75.
Saunders, Mrs Brownell, on entrance requirements in English, 90-91.
Schurman, J. G., on length of college course, 60-64.
Science teaching in preparatory schools, 96-98.
Scientific method, teaching of, 96-98.

Seaver, Edwin P., on elective system, 7, 9-10.
Secondary schools, elective system, paper and discussion, 7-39.
Sihler, E. G., on election of studies, 36-38; on length of college course, 72-74.
Sullivan, James, on length of college course, 81-83.

Taylor, James M., on length of college course, 64-72.
Tetlow, on election of studies, 9-26.
Treasurer's report, 131-32.

University of Pennsylvania, regulations governing degrees, 43-45.
Updegraff, Harlan, on electives, 14-22.

Vacations, tendency to lengthen, 98-100.
Van Dyke, Henry, quoted, 12-13.

Wallis, Edith, on field hockey, 130-31.
West, Andrew F., on length of college course, 53-60.
Wood, Thomas D., on athletics, 109-10.